Fundraiser for Seeley's Bay Steps Up

2pm
Sunday
January 19

Seeley's Bay Community Centre
151 Main St
Seeley's Bay

Normally James Raffan can be found paddling about in Cranberry Lake or somewhere in a back corner of Siberia but last summer he and his wife, Gail Simmons, met on Vancouver Island to do some fishing and then travelled from British Columbia to Nova Scotia by train. It was a grand seven-day adventure that took them from coast to coast along the storied steel that links Canada sea to sea with lots of adventures along the way. Join James as he recounts the journey with laughs, photos, birthday candles, missing the train in Hornepayne, and a few other tall tales along the way.

Tickets available at the door first come first served, or in advance by calling 613 387 3936 or by clicking here.

Fundraising Continues for Steps Up

The Directors of the Seeley's Bay Area Residents' Association are moving forward with Phase 2 of their economic revitalization project, known as Seeley's Bay Steps Up, and once again local resident Dr. James Raffan has volunteered his talents to help with the cause. Please plan to attend TWO STORYFEST EVENTS this winter at the community hall, on Sunday afternoon, January 19, and again on March 16. Dr. Raffan will share the story of his journey across the country by train at the first event, and the second event will focus on his most recent trips to the Arctic. As always you can count on laughing and learning at these Storyfest events. Details of the first event are printed to the left of this column. Tickets may be purchased online by clicking this link <http://tinyurl.com/klredxl>. An alternative way to get tickets is to email sbara@seeleysbay.com; the ticket price is $10 each.

The second phase of Steps Up will add more signage and planters, create 2 more parkettes, enhance the paddling station, advance the water quality goals, and continue overall efforts to attract visitors.

Fundraiser a huge success – Thanks to the efforts of many volunteers working together, over $41,000 was raised to help Seeley’s Bay resident Zach Elliot (front row) get on with the next phase of his life. Congratulations to (back row) Jan MacPhail, Jan Holland, Don Bracken, Peter Gard, Sherri Collins, Jane Billings, Nicole Peters, and Sherri Gilbert.

All the best of the holiday season to everyone!
