Seen Around Seeley's Bay (and beyond)

It finally felt like spring in May, as tulips replaced daffodils and hummingbirds and orioles returned from the south. The month started with a humdinger of a fundraising concert at the United Church featuring Chris Murphy, with some enthusiastic audience participation. The United Church also offered up tasty baked goods the next weekend, which came in handy for my out-of-town visitors, who enjoyed the first boat ride of the season launched from the Seeley's Bay docks.

The new Lions/SBARA notice board at the Post Office, organized by Lion Ann Chase, will offer information on many village and area happenings. We also saw a lot of Ann on Facebook each evening as she eliminated our 50/50 tickets all month...check the Lions Facebook page to discover the big winner. In response to a much less fortunate situation after the fire at our grocery store on April 28, the Lions organized a free bus service, kindly provided by Robert Hogan Bus Lines, to help folks get down to Kingston for supplies. Lion Wilma Dixon and company GM (and driver!) Bobbi-Jo Buchanan remind everyone that all are welcome for the June 6th and 20th trips, and suggest folks leave the car at home and make a field trip of it (Wilma even suggests breakfast at Stacks by the Walmart!)

And finally, many SBARA members were spotted filling up red canoes and planters with flowers from Wendy's Country Market and Let it Grow, which will compliment the hanging baskets from Minaker's Flower Centre. Hello summer!

Seeley's Bay is in bloom: huge thanks from SBARA to all those who have donated to our flower initiative, including Wendy's Country Market, Canadian Wollastonite, Peggy Sweet and Bob McCumber, Dr Dodie Elkins, Josh, Joyce Fleming, Anita Verstraete, Jan and Paul Holland, Mr. and Mrs Ted Harris, Jenn Clark, Mary Whitney, Seeleys Bay Lions, Seeley's Bay Drugmart, Pam and Louise Sweet, Dr Debbie Briggs, Dr Emily O'Connor, Kara Lang, Kathy Degraff, Jane Billings, Mark Jamison and Jill Vitols, Janet Panabaker and David Lunman and the Township of Leeds and Thousand Islands. You can still donate if you're able: Drop off cash contributions at Ridgway Confections, or click <https://www.visitseeleysbay.ca/adopt-a-plant.html#/> to donate, or e-transfer sbara730@gmail.com, subject "flowers".
